

(Robert) Allen: Reluctant Reformers

“[Harriet Tubman became] an active soldier in the Union army ... and ... the first woman in the U.S. to direct a military campaign. John Brown considered [her] “the most of a man naturally that I ever met with.” In fact she was the “most of a woman.”

- |                 |                   |
|-----------------|-------------------|
| A. At a minimum | M. New Haven      |
| B. Lithuanian   | N. That's that    |
| C. Liberated    | O. Ratty          |
| D. East of Eden | P. Eat crow       |
| E. Newman       | Q. Forthwith      |
| F. Riff         | R. Ovation        |
| G. Empathy      | S. Retch          |
| H. Low bridge   | T. Majestic       |
| I. Unnamed      | U. Emmylou Harris |
| J. Chamois      | V. Resistance     |
| K. Thorn        | W. Scorned        |
| L. Abomination  |                   |